Press Release

Former Macquarie Bank Adviser- Themis Karakaidos joins Insight Management Partners

8th September 2015: Insight Management Partners CEO Christopher Fellas today announced the appointment of Mr Themis Karakaidos. After 12 years of service at Macquarie Bank, Mr Karakaidos has joined Insight Management Partners as Senior Wealth Manager, Executive Director. He has also been appointed the chair of Insight's Investment Committee. Mr Karakaidos' career spans 20 years in financial services as a financial adviser together with roles in technical services, research and adviser education.

Christopher Fellas says Themis' technical knowledge, experience and deep understanding of client's needs adds further to Insight Management Partner's holistic end to end approach with their clients.

Dean O'Neill, Managing Director of Insight Investment Partners said "having worked closely with Themis for 10 years at Macquarie I am very aware of the comprehensive and thoughtful approach Themis brings to Wealth Management. Given his financial services knowledge and experience Themis is a valuable addition to the growing advice business within Insight Management Partners."

Mr Karakaidos says "Insight Management Partners with its independence provides the ideal environment to deliver considered and tailored wealth management opportunities to our clients." I was particularly attracted to the boutique nature of Insight and the growth opportunities of the Group"
